RESPONDENTS' ANSWER TO COURT'S ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Come now Respondents, by and through the Attorney General of the State of Alabama, and file their response to this Court's Order to Show Cause dated August 18, 2006, giving the Respondents 20 days in which to file a response to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by the Petitioner, Duval Jones. On September 7, 2006, this Court granted the Respondents an enlargement of 21 days in which to file its response. In response, Respondents file the following answer, memorandum brief, and exhibits.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On June 18, 2002, Jones pleaded guilty to second degree robbery and was sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment. Petition, p. 2-3; State's Exhibit A, p. 4.

Jones did not directly appeal his conviction. Id.

2. Jones filed a petition for post-conviction relief pursuant to Rule 32 of the Alabama Rules of Criminal Procedure on November 25, 2003. State's Exhibit B, p. 2. The circuit court summarily denied Jones's petition on December 30, 2003, and denied his motion for an out-of-time appeal on July 1, 2004. Id. Jones filed two more Rule 32 petitions – one on February 2, 2005 which was denied on March 16, 2005, and another on October 31, 2005 which was dismissed on November 28, 2005. State's Exhibits C and D.

JONES'S FEDERAL HABEAS CLAIMS

4. On July 28, 2006, Jones filed a writ of habeas corpus petition raising the following claims:

(1) The Court was without subject matter jurisdiction because it improperly amended his indictment; and

(2) His trial counsel was ineffective.

Petition, p. 5.

5. On August 18, 2006, this Court entered an order requiring Respondents to show cause why Jones's habeas corpus petition should not be granted. On September 7, 2006, this Court granted the Respondents an enlargement of 21 days, giving the Respondents until September 28, 2006 in which to respond.

ANSWER TO THE PETITION

6. Jones's federal habeas corpus petition is untimely under the one-year statute of limitation provision of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA).

7. Respondents admit Jones is presently incarcerated in a state facility resulting from his conviction for second degree robbery, but deny he is in custody in violation of the laws or constitution of the United States. Jones's convictions and sentences were validly and constitutionally obtained.

MEMORANDUM BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF ANSWER

8. Jones's petition is barred by the one-year statute of limitation set out by the AEDPA. According to 28 U.S.C.A. § 2244(d):

(1) A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of--

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Because Jones pleaded guilty on June 18, 2002, pursuant to Rule 4(b)(1) of the Alabama Rules of Appellate Procedure he had 42 days from that date (July 30, 2002) in which to directly appeal his conviction. Accordingly, he had one year from that date in which to file his federal habeas corpus petition. Although he filed his first Rule 32 petition on November 25, 2003, one year had already transpired and his time for filing his federal habeas corpus petition had lapsed pursuant to the AEDPA.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing authorities and facts, Jones's federal habeas corpus petition should be dismissed with prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

Troy King (KIN047)

Attorney General
